Paddock Breaks World's Records at Four Distances—Giants, Though Idle, Move Into Lead

Coast Sprinter Also Ties Marks In Two Events

Californian Covers 100 Meters in 0:102-5, Clipping 1-5 Off Old Figures

REDLANDS, Calif., April 23.—Charles W. Paddock, of the University of Southern California, broke four world's records and tied two other marks at the Southern California A. A. U. track to-day, according to the official time.

The Olympic champion shattered the as the mark for 300 yards, and equaled 220-yard events. His time was as follows: One hundred meters, 10 2-5 seconds; 200 meters, 21 1-5 seconds; 300 meters, 33 4-5 seconds; 100 yards, 9 3-5 seconds; 220 yards, 21 1-5 seconds.

The world's record for 100 yards.

9.3-5 seconds, was made in 1906 by Dan J. Kelly. Paddock twice equaled this mark a few weeks ago in a dual meet on the Coast, but these earlier performances have not as yet been accepted by the International Amateur Athletic Federation. At that time the California marvel also smashed Bernie Wefers's long-standing mark of 21 1-5 acconds for 220 yards, but this award also is pending.
The mark for 100 meters (109.36 yards was created by Don Lippincott in 1912, when he ran the distance in 10 3-5 seconds. Paddock had been near this particular record for a long time. He was clocked in 10 3-5 seconds for the odd distance at Ebbets Field lest July. It was found that the track was slightly short, and he was not alloved to share the honors with Lippincett.

the 200 meter record was held by A. Habn, of América, who ran the distance in 213-5 at the Olympic games in 1904, while the 300 mark of 262-5 for 300 meters was jointly held by Faillet, France, and Hezei, Hungary, made in 1908 and 1913, respectively. The 300-yard mark was made in 1896 by Bernie Wefers, when he was clocked in 303-5.

by Bernie Wefers, when he was clocked in 30 3-5.

The Olympic champion's performance yesterday will beyond a doubt be accepted, for every precaution was taken to comply with the rules which govern the acceptance of a new record. Bob Weaver, who had much to do with the development of Paddock, is president of the A. A. U., and previous to the meet he notified the world that he would have a corps of expert clockers on hand to prove that Charlie could knock the props from under the old marks.

Veteran Gunner Defeats Martin After Tie With 98 Out of 100 Targets

Members of the New York Athletic Club brought to a close their regular Saturday trapshooting season at the Travers Island traps yesterday. Not that it is the final shoot of the year, for next Saturday the club championship will be staged, and the following week the N. Y. A. C. will hold the annual championship of America.

Being the final Saturday of the month, as well as the last of the season, there was a grand old cleaning up of prizes. In the regular weekly shoot R. L. Spott did the best work. He took the high scratch prize, after a shoot-off, from Dr. G. R. Martin. Each had 96 out of a possible 100 targets in the first time at the traps.

The high handicap prize went to H. J. Thielman. The Travers Island trophy was won by C. A. Brown, In the race for the Buermeyer Cup, R. L.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, after a iamentable showing in their first few games, appear to have rallied and are games, appear to have railed and are now climbing toward the uppermost notches. The Boston Braves are battling neck and neck with Uncle Robbie's men for a place in the sun. But any one who would have the temerity to conjecture the outcome when the roll is called in October is far from modes!

George Kelly of the Giants is another who is doing his utnost to out-Ruth Ruth in the home run department of the national pastime. Long George has made a most promising start. Many is the ball that has received a real healthy swat from the bat of the lengthy first sacker of the Giants.

So it is a merry set-to among these expert hitsmith, and the critical fan is watching this rather than the percentage column. Mr. C. Fan likes home runs more than coronets, as the ancient Anglo-Saxon might have said. That is until the final show-down comes, and mayhap even then.

White Sox Owner Balks at Paying $12,000 for Shea

Charles Comiskey, owner of the White Sox, is not satisfied with his bargain. The Old Roman took Pat Shea, pitcher of the Giants, in accordance with what he understood as the waiver route. The Giants paid $12,000 for this same Pat Shea, the Toronto Club of the new International League being on the receiving end.

Now Mr. Comiskey learns that new regulations require that he reimburse the Giants to the exact amount paid by President Stoneham of the New York Club for sorrel-topped Pat.

Shea was the most successful pitcher n games won and lost on the Toronto Club last year. In his workouts with the Giants at San Antonio he displayed a world of speed but seemed sadly lacking on control. Pat confessed that he was afflicted with a sore arm and just could not get going. He visited Bonesetter Reese a few days ago and was assured by this expert that his arm would come around all right in due time.

Passing Will Cause Regret

The passing of Henline will be a cause of regret to the fan who obtains the keenest pleasure from a live player who is at the same time a talking machine par excellence. Walter of the Hoosier metropolis was peppery to the extreme—in the game every minute and howling forth his encouraging chatter to his pals when everything was going wrong. Henline will undoubtedly come back to the big show.

A triple tie existed in Class D. The gunners were D. J. Stack, Claude Carter and G. T. Wood. Instead of shooting off the gunners tossed a coin and Stack was the winner, with Carter second and Wood third. Six professionals also shot, and D. D. Cross was the high gunner.

The conditions were not particularly good. The wind was high and a heavy rain fell throughout the afternoon. One woman competed. She was Mrs. Robert Shaw, who returned a card of 104. The scores:

contenders for the home run honors as Rabe, the mighty; his teammate Bob Meusel, Bob's brother Emil, of the Phillies; Long George Kelly, of the Giants, and a certain Smith, by name of Elmer, in Cleveland. It is a mercy that these boys were unable to renew their conflict. They needed a respite.

One bit of news leaked out of the rainy roofs of major league ball, and John J. McGraw was the man who came to the rescue. The manager of the Giants announced that Walter Henline, the catcher secured from the Indianapolis club of the American Association, had been returned to his old team.

CLEVELAND, April 23.-Cleveland

CLEVELAND, April 23.—Cleveland defeated St. Louis, 6 to 2, to-day, making it three straight victories. Sewell's batting decided the contest. His two-bagger in the first inning drove in two more. Coveleskie was tated nearly as hard as Davis, but was effective with men on bases.

Stephenson, the University of Alabama recruit, who leads the league in batting, failed to get a hit to-day, after hitting safely in eight consecutive games. He drew a pass and was hit with a pitched ball, and thus had but two legal times at bat. Stephenson announced to-day he would remain with the Indians all season, instead of returning to college May 1 to graduate.

The score:

PITTSBURGH, April 23.—Clevelland won the third game of the series here to-day from Pittsburgh, 5 to 4. Ability of the Reds to solve Hamilton's delivery in the first and third innings gave the victory to the visitors. In these innings the Cincinnati team scored all its runs on eight hits and an error by Hamilton.

Glazner and Carlson held the visitors safe after the third. Marquard was invincible for five innings, but weak-ened in the sixth. Home runs by Fonson announced to-day he would remain with the Indians all season, instead of returning to college May 1 to graduate.

McGraw Sends Recruits Lead the Regulars Of Both Leagues in Batting

Stephenson, of Indians, Tops American Circuit; Tierney, of Pirates, Shows Way in National

The present baseball season has begun with a promise of great hitting, It is far too early yet and the weather has been far too uncertain ince the return of the teams from the South either for the pitchers to each their highest standard of effectiveness or for the batters to adjust their eyes. But the fact remains that no less than forty-five players of the National League and thirty players of the American League are credited with averages of .300 or better, up to the games of Friday last. Fifteen National Leaguers and eleven American Leaguers have bettered .400. Reassuring, indeed, has been the work of a number of sensational recruits in fast company for the first time. Two of these lead the regulars of the respective big leagues: Stephenson (University of Alabama), of Cleveland, heads the American with .577, and Tierney, of Pittsburgh, tops the National with .517.
